

Razoofmusic & East African Records presents....

UBUNTU (LIGHTERS UP)

Generale Zaabu, Razoof, Erdal Tosun

Ubuntu is a term from the Bantu languages, meaning "I am because we are," highlighting the interconnectedness of all people and the importance of community and compassion.

It is also the title of the latest single from Ugandan singer Generale Zaabu, in collaboration with producers Razoof and Erdal Tosun. The track is a powerful reggae anthem that beautifully complements Zaabu's commanding vocal style, delivering a message of unity, strength, and solidarity.

With its soulful rhythms and infectious beats, Ubuntu captures the essence of the African philosophy, celebrating community and the profound connection between individuals. The synergy between Zaabu's dynamic voice and the skilled production of Razoof and Tosun creates a truly captivating sound that resonates with listeners on a deep, emotional level.

Generale Zaabu: Born as Rukundoye Joshua, Generale Zaabu is a Ugandan singer-songwriter and guitarist blending soul, blues, and Reggae Dancehall. He began his musical journey at 13, later becoming a backup vocalist for reggae legend Maddox Sematimba before rising to prominence in Uganda's live reggae scene. With powerful vocals and rich lyrics, he spreads messages of Pan-Africanism, unity, and uplifting vibes. He has performed in Uganda, Kenya, and the UK, sharing stages with legends like Chronixx, Turbulence, and Lavosti. His albums Sudan and Born Fi Dis celebrate love, peace, and the blessings of Jah, cementing his place in reggae's new wave.

Razoof is a producer, DJ, and drummer from Cologne, Germany, now based in Entebbe, Uganda. For over 20 years, he has been shaping reggae, dub, and global electronic music, collaborating with artists from 25 countries.

Alongside reggae legends like Luciano, Lutan Fyah, and Mykal Rose, Razoof has worked with leading female voices from Jamaica such as Keida and Aza Lineage, as well as kora master Pa Bobo Jobarteh and the Bantu Crew from Nigeria. He has also collaborated with various singers from across the African continent, including C Wyne Nalukalala, Bani Fyah, and Jamal Wasswa (Uganda), Binti.Afrika (Kenya), Oge Kimono (Nigeria), and Jhikoman (Tanzania).
